Hello Jane Noh!
From your My Account Dashboard you have the ability to view a snapshot of your recent activity and update your account information. Select from your action toolbar on left panel to view or edit information. Please note that not all Polymaster products are available to order online at this stage. You can still order all products by phone, email and fax. If your store is entitled to extra discounts, these will be added after Polymaster receives the Sales Order and apply it to your Invoice.
